Chairperson—Mrs Debbie Marshall

It was lovely seeing those who turned up to the Pride of Lincoln for a meal, we had a most enjoyable evening.

The Jubilee has been and gone, England were out of the European football, what a surprise! The torch has been and gone through Lincolnshire, what a treat that was, absolutely amazing! I went to see it with my kids, it was worth seeing, nothing like watching it on the TV, what an experience for me and the kids. We even got to see a change over, it was a bit of London that came to Lincoln.

It is all still very exciting as we have got the Olympics to look forward to and if everything over the past few months hasn't been a bit too much overload for you, then you have always got Big Brother to fall back on lol!

Now for some important news, on hearing the news during the week about nearly half of all care homes and treatment centres in England are failing vulnerable adults, I can't believe that lessons still haven't been learnt especially after the abuse uncovered by BBC Panorama at the Winterbourn View. <http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-18581253>

I can't believe we still live in a country where neuro-typicals behave in the way they do towards vulnerable people and how we are still discriminated and bullied. In my opinion it is because we are easy targets as we don't have the same level of understanding, but it doesn't mean that we are not intelligent!

We must all remember no one is perfect, but it is frustrating when we, or our children are criticised for our or their behaviour. Maybe there should be more understanding towards us as they may find that we have a lot to offer.

Everyone is welcome at our next support meeting, hope to see you then.

Famous OCD Quote

MP Charles Walker told MPs he was a "practising fruitcake" as he described how he had lived with Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD) for more than 30 years.

"On occasions it is manageable and, on occasions, it becomes quite difficult. It takes you to some quite dark places.

"I operate by the rule of four. So I have to do everything in evens. MPs reveal mental health issues

"I have to wash my hands four times. I have to go in and out of a room four times. My wife and children often say I resemble an extra from Riverdance as I bounce in and out of a room."
